MINUTES
POLICE COMMISSION
December 22, 2021

1. Call to order.

President Cole called the meeting to order at 5:33 p.m.

Present: President Cole and Commissioners: Anderson, Bulluck and McKnight

2. Consider November 30, 2021 meeting minutes.

Chair Cole moved, seconded by Commissioner Anderson by to approve the November 30, 2021 meeting minutes. Motion carried 4-0.

3. Received feedback on police chief recruitment – Riseling Group.

Ms. Deb Hettrick and Mr. Brian Bridges from The Riseling Group was in attendance to gather feedback from the Commission on the candidate profile to be used during the recruitment and selection process. Commissioners took turns responding to the questions included in the Commission agenda packet. The Riseling Group took notes of the responses.

4. Progress report on police chief recruitment – Riseling Group.

Ms. Hettrick provided an update to the Commission on the current status of the police chief recruitment process. The progress report was included in the Commission packet. All listening sessions with everyone are completed. There will still be consideration for an in-person listening session; however, no one during the remote session had expressed interest for an in-person listening session and Mr. Burkart was not aware of this requested in any of the ten surveys completed online. The Commission expressed hesitation with the current Covid trends, as well. Ms. Hettrick reminded the Commission that the finalists for the police chief will be in person for community members to interact with the candidates and further discuss their concerns with the department. Ms. Hettrick will submit the completed job description to Ms. Ewald and Mr. Burkart to share with the Commission. Mr. Cole reported some of his recommendations that he provided to The Riseling Group for their consideration. The Riseling Group is working on scheduling the interview panels as well as finalizing the application and screening process. Ms. Hettrick mentioned the Commission should email any thoughts or feedback on interview questions they'd like to ask in the interview process or incorporated in the scoring to be sent to Ms. Ewald or Mr. Burkart to forward on to The Riseling Group.

5. Adjournment

Commissioner Anderson moved, seconded by Commissioner Bulluck to adjourn at 6:37 p.m. Motion carried 4-0.

Respectfully submitted,

Tyler Burkart
Assistant Village Manager
